Gamble Store Burglar Tells Owner How to Stop Thefts Hereafter

Drake Frisell, 16, L. Marie Confesses to Break-ins at Three Places

Drake Frisell, Forest avenue, Shady Nook Subdivision, Lake Marie, who confessed to sheriff's police that he burglarized Rudy Eckert's Gamble Store on July 4, and three other places in Antioch recently, gave advice to his latest victim on how to frustrate thieves like himself.

He told Eckert, from whom he had stolen more than $800 in cash and some checks, hereafter not to leave his safe unlocked.

"And another thing," he advised, "if you leave the key in the inside of the door, always turn it a little. I could shove a paper under the door, push the key out onto it, and pull the key out with the paper."

Next, he told the South Main street merchant to strengthen the bars over his basement windows. He said he had no trouble pushing them out, breaking the glass and crawling into the basement at 4 p. m. on the holiday, and then ascending the stairway to the display room.

Finding the safe open, he took the money.

Asked by Eckert what he did with the 15 or more checks that were in the safe, Frisell denied taking them. Then he obtained a box, and standing on it reached over some merchandise directly above the safe and pulled down a cardboard box from which he drew the missing checks and five rolls of silver coins. Several checks are missing and the police believe they were thrown into Lake Marie by Frisell along with some miscellaneous papers he is accused of having taken.

Deputy Sheriff W. J. Wood's report said that State Trooper Jack Wells had requested him to meet Mrs. Mary Frisell, step-mother of Drake, at the California Subdivision on Rte. 173 at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, where Mrs. Frisell told them the youth had a large sum of money and she was afraid he was in trouble again.

She turned over $310 to Woods and along with it a bank book of Uptown Federal Savings, 4545 Broadway, Chicago. The bank book (continued on page 7)

Large Crowds Here For Holiday Weekend; Resorts are Crowded

While rain tended to mar the Fourth of July holiday somewhat, it did not keep the crowds from coming to the resorts and Antioch was a busy place during the weekend.

With the close of schools in Chicago, the vacationers are coming to the Chain of Lakes region in greater numbers than ever before. The waters of our lakes were dotted with boats and there were more motor boats than ever this year.

The fortunate situation this year was the fact there wasn't a single fatality or accident of a real serious nature in this area.

Saturday and Sunday saw big crowds at the beaches and picnic grounds, whereas rain prevented them in most places on the Fourth.

Traffic was heavy and police in Antioch and Fox Lake were kept busy regulating it.

Business men report good business this year.

John L. Horan Chosen Commander of Antioch American Legion Post

John L. Horan was elected commander of the Antioch American Legion at its meeting last Thursday.

Horan will succeed Dr. G. W. Jensen and become the second "retread" at the post. Horan, like Jensen, is a charter member of the post and this is his second term as commander.

Other officers are George Swenson, senior vice commander; Clarence Shaw, junior vice commander; John Volk, sergeant-at-arms; W. V. Lahti, chaplain; John W. Horan, finance officer; and Paul Chase, Bogardus officer.

Cmdr. Horan and Mrs. Horan who heads the Legion Auxiliary, have set Saturday, Aug. 9 as the date for the joint installation of their two organizations.

The Legion voted a citation to the Antioch News for its aid to the post during the past year.

Lake County Fair To Open in Two Weeks for 4 Days

The 30th Annual Lake County Fair and 4-H Club Show will open in two weeks—July 24—at the Fair Grounds on Rte. 45 one-half mile north of Rte. 120.

Lasting four days and nights the fair will be filled with numerous programs with wide appeal.

For those who prefer the lighter vein there will be the huge midway with its rides. There will be a giant fireworks display Friday and Saturday nights, July 25 and 26.

The Lake County Fair has grown rapidly in recent years until it is now the leading County fair in Northern Illinois and one of the top fairs in the entire state. Since the procurement of its own grounds three years ago the board of directors has made many improvements for the benefit of exhibitors and visitors. Buildings, roadways, seating, and parking facilities have been provided.

Huge Livestock Show
Some of the finest livestock in the U. S. will be on display at the County Fair and 4-H Club Show. Dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, goats, and rabbits will be exhibited by Lake County's livestock breeders.

All livestock, as well as all other exhibits will be judged by competent judges and prizes awarded accordingly. An excellent view of all livestock, and machinery exhibits, and autos can be had at the giant parade on Saturday, July 26 at 7:30 p. m. and Sunday, July 27, at 4 p. m.

Numerous Entertainment Features
Each day's program will provide numerous entertainment features, starting with the 4-H Club Horse Show at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, July 24. At 8 p. m. that evening the 4-H members will present a talent show of music, dancing, and stunt and novelty acts.

Some of the acts have been selected to appear at the State Fair at Springfield in August.

On Friday, July 25, at 8 p. m. the famous Calzavara Bar-M Ranch Rodeo with its bull dogging, broncho busting, bareback, and thrill performance will be featured.

Set Rezoning Hearings On Shopping Center, McDougall Picnic Plat

Traer-McIntosh Hearing July 29 to be Continued At Wadsworth Station

Two zoning hearings affecting the Antioch area have been set by the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals.

A hearing is set for 1:30 p. m. July 29 in the Antioch Village Hall on the proposal to rezone to business 20 acres of farmland in Antioch Township just below Rte. 173's intersection of Antioch and Newport townships to permit a shopping center.

The request is made by Glenn W. Traer of Millburn Farms, Inc., and Arthur T. McIntosh & Co., contract purchaser of 570 acres of land in Newport township who also seek the rezoning of this land from farming or R-1 to R-3 residential.

The Antioch hearing will be adjourned for a hearing at 2:30 p. m. at the Wadsworth Fire Station on the residential rezoning proposal.

A hearing has been set for Tuesday, Aug. 5, in the Antioch Village Hall at which Eugene and Betty Jean McDougall, and Edith Hatch seek a rezoning of farmland on the north of Rte. 173 at Fox River to B-1 (business).

The petitioners want the reclassification not to continue operation of a trailer camp, but so that they may rent and store boats, sell and service boats, operate a picnic grounds and refreshments stand. At present it is used for boat rentals, storage and picnic grounds and "other uses, such as a trailer camp."

Antioch Area Girls Invited to Try For County Fair Queen

Girls in the Antioch area who know as much about rock 'n' roll as they know about rock 'n' roll have a chance to win all expenses paid trip to Miami Beach, Fla.

They can stay at the famous Sherry Frontenac Hotel and win a scholarship to Patricia Stevens School, Chicago, as Miss Lake County, the reigning queen of the Lake County Fair July 24-27 at the Grayslake fair grounds.

"A talented girl—she could be from Antioch or in its vicinity—can cash in on her abilities by getting her name in before the deadline, midnight, Tuesday, July 15," said Contest Chairman William Schroeder.

In addition to homemaking, girls will be judged on personality, poise, knowledge of current events and activities, and beauty.

All categories will be given equal emphasis, said the chairman. Local residents are invited to submit nominations of girls they think would make a good Miss Lake County. Girls need not be sponsored.

ANNOUNCE TAG DAY SALES

The Doughnut Tag Day sale of the Salvation Army amounted to $113. Mrs. Margaret Gaston, chairman announced. Ten per cent of this will remain in Antioch for relief purposes. The rest is sent to headquarters for aid to unfortunates.

That Urge Uninhibited Here

Did you ever have the urge to smash something—an automobile for instance? For a small sum you can wield a steel mallet in smashing an automobile at the Legion Carnival. Here Cmdr. George W. Jensen wields the sledge hammer for the first dent. "Get it out of your system" urged a sign on the side of this good automobile.

Legion and Auxiliary Present Biggest-Best Carnival This Week

The carnival sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary is on full blast at the village parking lot on Broadway and will continue through Sunday evening.

The patriotic organizations assert this is the best and biggest carnival that Antioch has ever had.

Featured among the eight rides is the new Eli Scrambler. The others are the merry-go-round, ferris wheel, octopus, bulgie whale, kiddie autos, super rollo-plane, and tilt ride.

The rides are furnished by the John Hansen Amusement Co. of Channahon.

The Auxiliary is operating the food stands and the Antioch Lions Club is conducting an auction.

William Lahti is general chairman of the carnival and is assisted by O. I. Onstad. Others on the committee are Roman Vos, Clarence Shaw, John Horan, and William Brook.

The club will sponsor a bowling league in the fall. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Irene Reynolds, telephone Antioch 983-J, for information.

Plans were made for a teenage hop Saturday, July 26 at the school, with dancing from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. Chaperones will be Mrs. Grace Amendola, Mrs. Youngman, Louis Rogers and Vernon Rogers.

Hurt in Leap From Car
Sheriff's deputies reported that Mrs. Bessie Boyd, 42, of 258 Park ave., suffered a gash in her right forearm Sunday when she jumped from the car of her husband, Frank Boyd, while they were driving west on Loon Lake road near Deep Lake. She landed on the pavement. Antioch Rescue Squad men treated her and then took her to Victory Memorial hospital. The police said the woman and her husband had quarreled.

Officials Attend I.C.C. Hearing on Soo Line

Mayor Murrill Cunningham, Trustees Ernest Glenn and Bernard Osmond, and Atty. E. C. Jacobs attended the hearing of the Soo Line before the Illinois Commerce Commission this morning seeking to abandon all passenger service to Antioch and the rest of Lake County.

The hearing was held at 10 a. m. in the State street building used by Illinois state offices in Chicago.

The decision of the Commission is not expected for at least 10 days.

The Antioch officials will try to salvage service for Antioch from at least one train.

Robert Wilton Heads County School Board; Welcomes Members

Robert J. Wilton, Antioch merchant, was elected president of the Lake County Board of School Trustees at the annual meeting Monday night.

Wilton has been a member of the board since it was founded. He will serve a two-year term succeeding James R. Paxton, rural Zion.

"We are always glad to have new faces and new ideas," said Wilton in greeting two new members of the board, Elliott Donnelley, Lake Forest, who returned Sunday from a European trip, and Mrs. Louise B. Hansmann of Highland Park.

Donnelley succeeds John O. Giles of Lake Forest and Mrs. Hansmann takes the place of Mrs. Minnie B. Levinson of Highland Park.

Board members expressed a desire to confer with an attorney regarding their ministerial functions and quasi-judicial duties and responsibilities in the light of amendments to the school code that grant local boards of education broader powers in the exchange of school properties.

The Board of School Trustees is the custodian of physical properties of the 55 grade schools, and 14 high schools in Lake County.

County School Supt. W. C. Petty, Antioch, sits with the board. He was instructed to invite N. E. Hutson, legal consultant to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Vernon L. Nickell, to discuss the topic of legal powers at an early meeting.

Festivities at St. Benedict's Abbey Friday To Mark Anniversaries of Notable Events

A Solemn Pontifical High Mass at 10 o'clock will highlight a day of festivities at St. Benedict's Abbey on Friday, July 11. The Rt. Rev. Richard Felix, O. S. B., founder and first Abbot of the Mission Monastery at Benet Lake, will celebrate the Mass and preside at the ceremonies in the Abbey Chapel.

Several notable events mark this day as an occasion for celebration. In the first place, it is a great Feast Day in honor of St. Benedict, the Patriarch of Western monasticism who died at Monte Cassino in the year 547. It is his spirit and Rule that guide the monks of Benet Lake and all other Benedictines throughout the world in their quest for Religious perfection.

The year 1958 is a personal milestone in the life of Father Abbot Richard, the Superior of St. Benedict's Abbey. It was 45 years ago that he first pronounced the holy

Citizens Council Says 10c Educational Tax Increase Recommended

Gives A.T.H.S. Board Signal to Go Ahead on Referendum

The Antioch Township High School Board is expected to act next Wednesday on the recommendation of the Citizens Advisory Council that a referendum be called on a proposal to increase the educational tax of the district 10 cents on each $100 assessed valuation.

The rate is now 65 cents, one of the lowest in Lake county, and the rate would be upped to 75 cents.

The Council said it acted on an analysis by the Lake County Civic League and its recommendation.

In a letter to the Antioch Board of Education, Bruce Trester, executive secretary of the Civic League, stated:

"At present, it appears that additional taxing power of 10c would be sufficient to meet the annual anticipated deficits of the next few years."

Deficit May Reach $125,000

The Citizens' Council unanimously endorsed the finance committee report which pointed out that the school's deficit for the year just ended is about $28,000. The report continued, "Even with an immediate raise in the tax rate limitation, we will be approximately $86,000 in the red before any tax money can be realized from a higher rate, and if we wait more than 2½ months before we approve a raise, our deficit will reach about $125,000 before such increased taxes would be available."

The discussion which followed this report emphasized the need for immediate action. A 10c increase in the educational fund was seen as a stopgap measure to prevent further accumulation of the deficit. As the effect of new multipliers and new tax collection methods become more definite a revised estimate of needs will be forecast. The Council concurred with the Civic League that the district's financial future is hard to predict, but that at least 10c is needed to keep the deficit in check.

The Council's recommendation now goes to the Board of Education which is expected to take official action at their next regular meeting.

Hans Hansen, Aged 73, Of Camp Lake Buried

Funeral service for Hans C. Hansen, of Sunset Oak Subdivision, Camp Lake, Wis., was held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Strang Funeral Home with interment in Liberty cemetery.

Mr. Hansen was found dead in his home Saturday morning by John Faryan, a neighbor who told Wisconsin sheriff's officials that Mr. Hansen apparently died during the night.

Coroner William Rauen said death occurred about 5 a. m. from a heart attack.

Hansen had been a resident of Camp Lake since 1950 when he retired from a job as maintenance man for the Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett Hardware Co., in Chicago.

He was born in Norway, Oct. 4, 1882 and came to America in 1920 to work in the logging camps of Michigan. He returned to Norway and then returned to the United States in 1930, establishing his residence in Chicago.

He is survived by three nieces.

It was in 1933 that Father Felix first began to write and publish the now famous WHY pamphlets, little six-page leaflets explaining the doctrines and practices of the Catholic Faith.

Departure Ceremony Planned
Perhaps the most memorable event of this day is the departure ceremony honoring the five Priest-monks scheduled to inaugurate a new Mission Priory in Old Mexico. The new monastic foundation will be made in San Juan del Rio in the State of Queretaro, about 100 miles north of Mexico City.

Asafetida or Salk Vaccine?

Asafetida is a foul-smelling gum resin derived from a plant native to the Middle East. Superstition and old wives' remedies once endowed it with sweeping medical powers, but science has long since demonstrated its utter worthlessness.

Yet when a terrible polio epidemic struck New York City back in 1916, thousands of people put their trust in little bags of asafetida, tied with a string about the necks of their children. While the toll of crippled mounted daily, while the virus killed one out of every four of the stricken, frightened parents resorted to any measure that gave hope, turning even to the ridiculously futile bags of resin in their desperate effort to hold off the disease.

Today, we recognize the pathetic ignorance which dictated that action. But how much have we profited through new knowledge available to us?

Across the country, drug store shelves and physicians' offices are stacked with bottles of a substance that will protect against polio. It is called Salk vaccine. Its safety is unquestioned. Its effectiveness has been demonstrated dramatically by the rapid decline in cases among the vaccinated. The vaccine is inexpensive and quickly administered. Yet, millions of Americans are neglecting to make use of it. Millions walk the streets with no more protection against crippling polio than the thousands whose lives were destroyed or distorted by the epidemic of 1916.

The threat of polio has not been eliminated. The virus still stalks among us. If you have not taken Salk shots you are still in danger.

The only way to have peace of mind is to get vaccinated NOW.

We All Pay the Penalty

There has been a vast amount of talk in Washington and elsewhere concerning tax reduction as a means of increasing consumer purchasing power and thus attacking the recession. Much of the talk, for want of a better phrase, deals with what may be called "political" tax relief. It would give the average taxpayer a few dollars more a week in his pay envelope. But it would do nothing at all toward correcting the built-in inequalities of our Federal tax system that discourages industrial growth and investment and that penalizes achievement.

What is needed, as the Wall Street Journal points out, is not a "quickie" tax relief, but "a real reform in our tax structure, made with deliberation and not in haste."

The existing structure, the newspaper goes on, with its steeply graduated rates on individual incomes, means, in effect, "... less pay for more work." Worse still, these steep graduations inevitably act as depressants on the whole economy. To quote the Journal again, the structure "severely restricts capital formation and the kind of spending necessary to nourish prosperity, spending that is above that for basic necessities. In time we will all pay a penalty for oppressive taxation."

On top of this, we have all manner of special taxes that came about as a result of hasty tax tinkering in past times. A prime example here is the depressing excise tax on such necessities as commercial transportation and telephone service. Some of these excises actually are hangovers from World War I. The agencies that created them are history, but the taxes remain.

The Journal also thinks that if the tax structure was re-examined and reformed the government "could readily find itself gaining more revenue from rates less burdensome." Here's a project that really is long overdue.

Economic Highlights

A business upturn has begun in certain important areas, and the prospects are that it will keep on gathering steam. That forecast is made by U. S. News and World Report in its issue of June 6, and is based on specific existing signs.

It should be added that the magazine does not expect a sudden upsurge in activity. Improvement will be gradual over the months ahead, and it will be much more marked in some fields of enterprise than in others. But strong forces in favor of recovery are now at work and "they could lift the dollar volume of spending to a record level by the end of 1958."

The good signs range a fairly wide gamut. Steel production has at last risen. There are more new housing starts. Oil output is up slightly. Farm machinery sales have improved. Road building moves into high gear. A strong revival has brought smiles to the aircraft makers. A short time ago the stock market touched its highest 1958 level.

The big question, of course, is whether such gains as these will develop into a generalized upward trend. U. S. News thinks they will for a number of reasons. For one thing, business is no longer carrying on major cuts in inventories and in some lines purchases are being stepped up. Government spending at all levels continues to increase. Money is cheaper and easier to borrow, both for individuals and for business. The gross national product (which is the value of all the goods and services we produce) ran at an annual rate of $422 billion in the first quarter of this year, while the second quarter rate has been about $426 billion. The rate for the last half of the year is expected to be $439 billion.

Actually, contrary to a widely held belief, the income available for spending has not materially declined during this recession. According to U. S. News, wages and salaries have gone down by $7.5 billion a year. But there has been an increase of some $5 billion a year in other types of individual income—unemployment benefits, retirement pay, old-age pensions. Farm prices recently reached the highest level in more than five years. As a consequence, what the economists call "disposable" income (the money consumers have left after taxes) as been down by only a slight percentage.

However, changes have appeared in the pattern of consumer spending. More of the money has gone for basic necessities, such as food and drugs, and for other non-durable goods. Less has been going for durable goods—notably, automobiles. U. S. News attributes this change to "the pressure of high living costs, the attitude of caution in taking on large debts, the lack of interest in present models of cars and appliances at present prices." The hope is that an increase in public confidence as business in general improves, along with the offering of new models of cars and appliances, will gradually correct the imbalance in spending.

All in all, as U. S. News sees it "the upturn is likely to become a full-fledged recovery before many months have passed."

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.—(Galatians 6, 2.)

To be tolerant of another person's folly; to be understanding of his weakness, and unobtrusively helpful; to give unselfishly of kindness and sympathy—to help build up instead of tearing down—all of these are part.

can be reviewed for accidents and various convictions for moving traffic violations at the rate of more than 1,000 per minute. Such review precedes the issuance of warning letters and license suspension by driver control officers. This contrasts with the former six weeks to two months by manual means.

That taxpayers have a stake in this operation is revealed by an estimate of the National Records Management Council: for every dollar spent to print office forms, more than $20 is spent for processing and filing them when conventional techniques are used.

Further, since driver supervision and control hold the key to greater highway safety, all citizens stand to benefit from these improved practices in the Drivers License Division of the office of Secretary of State.

Fight Over Labor Laws

The Congressional fight over labor legislation may prove a turning point in the nation's history.

Vote after vote in the Senate revealed without question the power of unions to influence legislation—a power which, unless curbed, could lead to a labor government in fact if not in name.

It is doubly significant that this display of power came at a time when labor bosses were supposedly on the defensive as the result of shocking revelations by the McClellan Labor Rackets Investigating Committee.

Everyone has known for many years of the vast power of organized labor to influence legislation. This is due in large measure to the political activity of union labor in behalf of candidates expected to vote for labor's program.

Conservatives in Congress are convinced that labor—at some point—will overreach itself in grasping for more and more power, and as a result, the public will rebel. It could be that this year's fight over labor legislation will provide the spark for an effective campaign to curb the monopoly power of labor.

Don't Add to Hot Weather Stress

Be especially careful to avoid adding to your poultry flock's stress this summer, when extreme temperatures put a strain on the birds.

Otherwise, stress factors may build up, breaking down your bird's natural immunity to disease and cause an outbreak.

Avoid these stress factors:

Improper feeding. Birds from high-producing stock will be under stress if they don't get the feed they require.

Irregular routine. Birds adjust readily to a routine. They may expect feed at a certain time each day. Don't change.

Overcrowding. Provide enough feeding and watering space for the birds.

Poor Sanitation. Watch out for wet litter and dirty waterers. Dispose of sick birds promptly.

President Signs

Bill Ending 3%

Tax on Freight

The 3% Federal excise tax on transportation of property has been repealed. President Eisenhower signed the bill making the repeal effective August 1, 1958.

H. Alan Long, District Director said: "Any amounts paid for transportation of goods by carriers—railroads, trucks, etc., on August 1, 1958 or after will not be subject to the 3 per cent Federal transportation tax."

"Where shipments are commenced on or before July 31, 1958, but payment for the transportation is made after that date, no tax will be due."

TAX FACTS

As summer vacations find many of Illinois' 4,700,000 licensed drivers "taking to the road," the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois has looked behind the scenes at the State drivers license program and come up with some startling observations.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter is charged by law with administration of a drivers license and a driver control program, both of which involve clerical tasks of gigantic proportions.

Daily work load for this operation involves 25,000 documents which must be examined, processed and filed. Yearly totals include more than 700,000 convictions for moving traffic violations and 400,000 accident reports. Drivers license applications exceed two million and average $6 million in fees each year. Fifteen million active records and twenty million non-current records must be maintained; the job is complicated by such details as the name "Smith" appearing 35,000 times in the driver file.

Ingenuity on the part of American business enterprise and of employees of the Secretary of State's office have combined to rescue this operation from the chaos which might have seemed to be its only fate. As a matter of fact, the Secretary of State has pioneered in a unique application of "electronic data processing" or EDP, in the jargon of automation, to this problem area.

By the use of machines which almost think for themselves, information from thirteen different sets of files has been condensed onto magnetic tape housed in a single file cabinet.

Drivers licenses can now be written and addressed at the rate of 22 per minute, ready to insert and mail. Driver control records

Wabash River Floods Create Emergency Areas

Governor Stratton said he has asked U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson to declare seven counties in Illinois emergency areas as a result of Wabash river floods.

The governor said that excessive rains and backwater from the river destroyed 70,000 acres of crops in Clark, Crawford, Lawrence, Edwards, Wabash, White and Gallatin counties.

Under public law 38, farmers in this area would be eligible for emergency loans under the Farmers Home Administration to those who qualify, should the counties be declared an emergency area.

Ruby Sevits

"Perhaps this means nothing but a nod of sympathy to most folks. But to those of you who are hard of hearing, it means embarrassment, loneliness, and frustration.

"I have known what it means to be gripped with fear that my world of sound was daily shrinking. I could hear, but I couldn't understand my own husband and daughter.

"But now I can hear again. My neighbor confided to me one day, and told me that she too was hard of hearing. I had never guessed. She showed me her MAICO headset aid that was completely concealed in her hair. It was smaller than a book of matches.

"I went to the MAICO office in Waukegan. I was tested and the audiologist explained how severe my loss was and why I couldn't understand people although I could hear them. I was fitted with MAICO HEARING GLASSES and now I can hear clearly again. When I see people wearing hearing aid glasses that are clumsy and thick, I look at my own MAICO glasses proudly because my own club members don't know that my MAICO glasses is a hearing aid."

Monday Anniversary Of Transistor Invented By Bell Telephone Co.

If the tiny sun-powered transmitter in the satellite Vanguard is heard beeping "Happy Birthday" these days, it won't surprise listening scientists.

June 30 was the tenth anniversary of the invention of the transistor—the miracle mite that is revolutionizing modern electronics. One of its applications enables satellites to send inner secrets of outer space back to Earth.

It was just ten years ago, on June 30, 1948, that the Bell Telephone Laboratories, whose research scientists invented the transistor, announced the discovery. The solar battery powering Vanguard's transmitter also is a Bell invention.

In the decade since its birth, the tiny transistor has been recognized as "the giant of the electronic age." The 1956 Nobel Prize for Physics was awarded to its inventors—John Bardeen, Walter Brattain and William Shockley.

All this acclaim is about a little piece of germanium metal with three fine wires imbedded in it—smaller than the filter-tip of a cigarette. But this tiny device serves nearly all the functions of the conventional vacuum or "radio" amplifying tube, with none of the inherent tube drawbacks of being fragile, requiring large amounts of power, and having a relatively short life.

The transistor can transform a whisper of electric power into an electronic shout, wasting no "warm up" time and using the most minute bit of current. In normal use it will last indefinitely, and can withstand impacts that easily shatter vacuum tubes. These unique advantages, combined with miniature size, have enabled transistors to hurdle barriers which limited the progress of vacuum-tube electronics.

Transistors already are an integral part of nationwide Direct Distance Dialing telephone equipment, volume-control telephones for the hard-of-hearing, new flute-like tone-ringers in special telephones, and now are being applied to improve talking qualities on rural circuits.

The transistor also will make practical an electronic telephone switching system—the most startling new concept in communications since Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone. At Morris, Illinois, the Bell System's first electronic office will begin operation late next year.

On its tenth birthday, the transistor still is small as ever in size—but it has grown enormously in contributions to the benefit of mankind.

Library News

NEW MEMORIAL BOOKS AT LIBRARY

"Your Garden in Town," by Ruth Marie Peters, was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Mrs. Ida Osmond. The book is especially designed to be helpful in planning a garden where space is limited. In addition to plans for outdoor gardens, there is a section devoted to the selection, arrangement, and care of plants suitable for indoor gardening.

The pets of the Pye family are so important that they take the family name, occupy much of the family time, and provide the titles for the books about the rollicking Pye family. Eleanor Estes won the Newbery prize in 1952 with "Ginger Pye," the Pye puppy, and her new book is about "Pinky Pye," an engaging and companies the family to Fire Island unpredictable black kitten who acquires a summer of bird watching. "Pinky Pye" was given to the library in memory of Nancy Hollimon. It is subtitled: "Notable conflagrations." "Famous Fires" by Hugh Clevely, on land, sea and in the air—none of which should ever have happened." Six of the eighteen tragic fires occurred on steamships. Other accounts include the Coconut Grove Night-club, the Texas City explosion, a circus fire, two theatre fires and even a forest fire. "Famous Fires" was given in memory of George Garland.

Phillip Van Loren Stern's fifth book about the Civil War era in our history is called "An End to Valor." He has consulted thousands of letters, documents, battle reports, diaries and newspaper accounts to give fresh material on the fall of Richmond, Abraham Lincoln's last few weeks, the flight of Jefferson Davis and his cabinet, and the last grim drama of Appomattox. "An End to Valor" was given to the library in memory of Elizabeth Webb.

The Antioch Acorns 4-H Club will meet at the Scout House tomorrow and form a swimming party at the Aqua Center, after which they will picnic in Williams Park. They will hold their next meeting at 2 p. m. Monday.

New Plastic Pavement
San Francisco, Calif.—A new safety pavement made of plastic was demonstrated here on the heavily traveled San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

It resists skidding even when it is wet, and it stops cars in one-half to three-quarters of the distance required by cars stopping on concrete. The material is a plastic adhesive. It is called Guardkote, paving resin by its developer, Shell Chemical Corporation. It is poured on a conventional road surface—either concrete or asphalt—and covered with grit as it begins to harden. The result is a thin, sand-like coating stuck firmly to the road.

Gamble Store Burglar...

was in the name of George Anderson.

When young Frisell returned home at 8:45 p. m. he was met there by the sheriff's deputies and Police Chief Walter Scott of Antioch.

On first questioning the youth said the bank book belonged to George Anderson of Fox Lake, but was questioned further when he became vague about where Anderson lived. Finally he broke down and admitted that Anderson was an imaginary person.

He denied the Case service station burglaries, but finally confessed the burglary at the Gamble store. He was taken to the store where he re-enacted the crime. Then he told of the other burglaries.

Frisell said that twice he entered the Antioch Clinic through the rear door. On May 20 he took $35, but on June 10, nothing. Dr. Alan L. Thain said that the thief at the clinic had been apprehended by Police Chief Scott but that he was reluctant to prosecute when he was told that the young man was ready to enter the army.

Frisell also confessed to the burglary of the Robert Mann grocery store where he got $26.

Police said that it appears from the youth's bank book that $200 remains in his Chicago account.

Frisell is held in county jail on charge of burglary.

The youth has had very little parental guidance and has been in trouble before. Police said that correction at St. Charles School for Boys had failed in his case.

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO SALESMEN, PEDDLERS AND SOLICITORS BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ANTIOCH, LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS:
SECTION 1. Definition: (a) Salesman: For the purpose of this Ordinance a salesman shall be deemed to be any person who demonstrates any article, merchandise, mechanical device, or other article or thing, or who offers for sale any insurance, stocks, bonds or thing tangible or intangible, without having made a definite appointment for that purpose with the customer previous to the time of going, either by telephone, letter or at the request of the customer.

(b) Peddler: A peddler shall be deemed to be any person who shall sell or offer for sale, barter, or exchange books, magazines, pictures, photographs, goods, wares or merchandise, traveling from place to place on, along or upon the streets or alleys of the Village, or at doors of houses or apartments or who shall sell and deliver such articles from any vehicle going from place to place, or who shall go about in the Village selling and delivering such articles or offering the same for sale and carrying the article offered with him.

The above definition shall not be construed to apply to any person selling vegetables, fruits, berries, poultry or other products off their own farms or premises, nor shall it apply to established dairy, bakery or grocery routes or wagons or trucks, which carry a food license under other ordinances of the Village.

(c) Solicitors: Any person who goes about the Village of Antioch offering for sale or taking orders for any books, pictures, photographs, goods, wares or merchandise, mechanical devices, furniture or thing whatsoever, shall be deemed to be a solicitor.

SECTION 2. License: Every person who desires to operate as a salesman, peddler or solicitor shall procure a license therefor before engaging in such work.

SECTION 3. Application: Every person desiring such license shall make application in writing therefor to the Village Clerk giving full information as may be required upon the application blank, to be furnished by such Clerk and state the full name, residence, age, type of work applicant expects to engage in, for whom applicant is selling and character references. Applicant shall deposit a license fee as required for the particular form of license issued.

Before said license shall issue, applicant must go to the Police Department of the Village of Antioch giving the same information to said department, and said department shall record the finger prints of each applicant together with the photograph to be furnished by such applicant. No license shall issue before the expiration of three days, unless the Police Department shall sooner be able to check the character, qualifications and record of such applicant. If same is found to be in proper order the department shall then approve a card, to be furnished by the Village Clerk, bearing a photograph of the applicant similar to the one on file in the Police Department, such license shall be signed by the Village Clerk and the Chief of Police of the Village.

This permission or license shall in no way be recommendation for any article or thing, tangible or intangible, which such salesman, peddler or solicitor may have to offer the public.

SECTION 4. At the time of the filing of the application, a fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) shall be paid to the Village Clerk to cover the cost of the investigation.

The license fee for peddlers shall be as follows: Two Dollars ($2.00) per day, or Ten Dollars ($10.00) per month, or Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per year for each applicant.

SECTION 5. Permit to be Carried: Upon satisfactory evidence being submitted to the Chief of Police that applicant is a fit, proper person to engage in such business as salesman, peddler or solicitor, and upon the payment of the fee as hereinbefore provided, there shall be issued to the applicant a permit in a form to be approved by the Village Clerk and the Chief of Police, which form shall bear the signatures of these officers and a photograph of said person to whom permit is issued. Applicant shall then be permitted to engage in his business in the Village of Antioch for such time as is provided for in his permit, not exceeding five days in the case of a salesman or a solicitor.

SECTION 6. Exhibiting Permit: Every holder of a permit under this Ordinance shall exhibit the same at the request of any Police Officer or any citizen of the Village of Antioch, and shall immediately upon making contact with a prospect in the Village exhibit such permit and properly identify himself.

SECTION 7. General Provisions: The Chief of Police may make such investigation of each and every applicant as he may deem proper and if in his opinion a longer time than is provided for in this Ordinance is required he shall be at liberty to refuse to issue such license until such investigation is completed.

An individual permit shall be issued for each person and each applicant must appear in person under his own signature. No one person shall be permitted to apply for a group or crew of salesmen.

SECTION 8. Unreasonable Use of License: No peddler, nor any person in his behalf, shall shout, use an amplifier, blow a horn, ring a bell or use any sound device, including any loud speaker radio and/or sound amplification system on any of the streets, alleys, parks or other public places of said Village, or upon any private premises in said Village where sound of sufficient volume is emitted or produced therefrom capable of being plainly heard upon the streets and alleys or other public places for the purpose of attracting attention.

SECTION 9. Penalty: Violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to a fine in the amount of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for each offense, and each day or part of day in which such violation shall occur shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

U. of I. Food Report

CHICAGO—A post-holiday adjustment in early to late-week markets could help the watchful consumer's food budget.

Fryers emerge as the probable top value for the entire week, with beef roasts holding their relatively good position in red meats.

Pork and lamb items continue at high retail price levels, and in some cases quote higher early week. Late-week forecasts indicate, however, that pork loins and spare ribs could slide off 6-8 per cent and pork butts 2-3 per cent from first-of-the-week retail costs. All beef items are steady at last week's retail.

Fresh produce abundance generally is the ring leader in real value considerations. Some spotty weather and over-lapping harvest conditions are working in favor of the homemaker. The holiday's four-day accumulation tends to have a depressing effect at wholesale, with some sources adding "There aren't too many high priced items—the market continues uninterrupted cheap."

Especially good value opportunities include peaches (for freezing and canning), watermelons, blueberries, bananas, cabbage, tomatoes and potatoes.

Also reported as real cheap are all greens, spinach, parsley, endive, escarole and celery cabbage.

A few produce items show momentary steady to slightly stronger price tones. These include sweet corn and cauliflower, both reported scarce and higher; dry and green onions, carrots and cantaloupes quoting higher to rate in the moderately priced range along with peas and beans. Some new crop apples are arriving but not enough to change relatively high costs as yet.

Despite the volume and quality of the fresh produce markets, and in keeping with indications noted here recently, published reports this week predict higher canned fruit and vegetable costs are coming along in grocery departments. Probably by fall.

These predictions are based on smaller packs of a sizable list of major staples, said to be the deliberate cutbacks in contracted acreage and some effects of weather, and in other instances, supplies of carryover stocks from last year are less than previously heavy stocks.

These seemingly are the significant aspects of metropolitan retail food patterns for the week ending July 12, according to the weekly survey by the University of Illinois consumer service.

Markets softened unaccountably (considering the holiday influence) for fryers, with most quarters rating them the real value in meats. Many feature price tags show at 35-39c against a normal retail of 43c.

While on the subject of poultry, expect the turkey market to edge downward at wholesale on better arrivals. This week, however, retail run at 53-55c for hens and 49c for toms.

Eggs are firming generally on a nic on Aug. 25. The movie, a money making project, "Francis Joins the Wacs", will be shown Monday evening, July 19, at Millburn church.

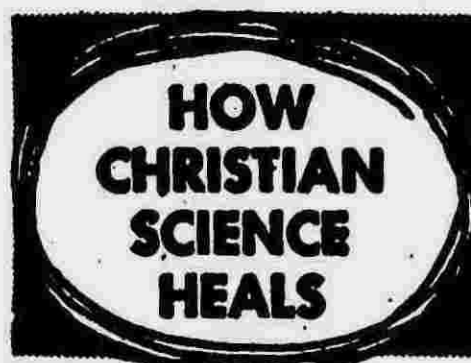

steadily to stronger wholesale level and result in typical 55c quotes for large grade A whites and 49c for mediums. This spread will narrow in the direction of the higher limit. Also arriving in Chicago stores this week are pullet eggs.

At live markets, cattle arrivals eased but not enough to prevent average prices for prime kinds to reach the lowest point since January. Hogs momentarily reached a new four-year high of $25.25 per cwt. before easing. Lambs lost about $1 in the first price reverse in a month.

At retail, there is little change worthy of mention for beef prices. Roasts offer the best consumer price deal. Some fresh pork moved higher at the head of the week. Lamb is nowhere to be seen on value listings.

Pork rib end roasts noted a shift of 55-59c levels with loin ends quoting 69c. Center chops seldom quote below $1.05, pork butts 59c and spare ribs 65-69c. All hams continue high and with no slack demand in evidence, could go higher. Top brand bacon reached 89c at the bottom quote. These prices could move down by late week.

Produce prices at random show some peaches quoting 2 lbs. for 29-39c, others 3 lbs. for 35c. The market is expecting a break against a voluminous crop rated 44 per cent greater than last year. Watermelons are rated cheaper on increasing supplies, with 59c quoted by some. Supplies of smaller kinds (20-pound average) are scarce, with the heavier weights showing lower per-pound price tags. Blueberries are a feature in many stores at 29c per pint, of excellent quality. Bananas are a "sleeper" in some quarters as consumers' attention is diverted to soft-fruit classes. Watch for some real low prices. Potatoes are in a late-spring, early-summer harvest bind. With the total crop running 3 per cent ahead of last year, lower prices can be expected. This week quotes show California whites 10 lbs. for 59c and reds 10 lbs. for 49c for No 1 U. S. grades. Cabbage at the most should quote 5c and will be found less in many stores.

★ Jim Conway, WBBM TV's Star of "In Town Tonight," meets Mrs. Hugh C. Michels, Jr., of Wilmette, Illinois

"Last summer I swore I'd give up baking...

but with my new electric range, my kitchen never heats up... even when the oven's been on for hours!"

says Mrs. Michels

Modern electric cooking means a cooler kitchen... one that helps save Mrs. Michels' energy for outside activities. She is a member of the Junior Board of Passavant Hospital and other charitable groups.

JIM CONWAY: You know, electric cooking's the coolest kind there is. That's one of the main reasons it's becoming more popular every day with modern women like yourself!

MRS. MICHEL: Well, Jim, it's mighty nice to work in a cool kitchen! You see, Hugh and I do a lot of entertaining... and, of course, there're always cookies to bake for the girls... but with all the baking I do... company-size roasts, pies like this, everything, my kitchen still stays cool and comfortable.

JIM CONWAY: I'm sure it does, because actual baking tests prove that modern electric ovens keep kitchens an average of 10 degrees cooler than any other kind.

MRS. MICHEL: I know that from experience, Jim... but why is it?

JIM CONWAY: Well, Mrs. Michels, it's because electric ovens are insulated on all 6 sides... not just five... so that the heat stays in the oven where it belongs. And, of course, that's one of the reasons electric cooking's so economical... actually costs only 7¢ a day for the average family.

MRS. MICHEL: Speaking of families, Jim... why not stay and have some of this apple pie with us?

JIM CONWAY: Mm-m-m-m-m! Electric cooking does have its advantages, doesn't it?

Every day, more modern women cook the modern electric way

EARLY DAYS OF ANTIOCH

(By J. M. Horton)

INDIAN LIFE

Like their predecessors, the Mound Builders, the Indians who inhabited these parts left little or nothing in the way of a written language. Tradition has it that Lake County lands were a favorite region, because of the abundance of fish and game here to be found, and that great battles were fought for its possession.

Indian villages were in existence at a number of points throughout the county; notably at Half Day, at Wynkoop's Point, and along Mill Creek, as well as at Pistakee and most of the other lakes, with much evidence of a strong encampment on the shores of Channel Lake adjacent to Antioch. Also there were villages on the DesPlaines River near the State Line, as well as along the Fox River west of town; for some years during the early settling of the township, the last named stream particularly was used as a route of travel for the fast-depleting bands of Indians in the locality, who made it a custom to encamp on Hackberry Island during their seasonal travels north and south, in order to gather stores of berries and nuts for winter food.

There were Indian cornfields of considerable extent, notably about the fertile chain of lakes region. There was an attempt at raising squash or pumpkins, potatoes, and beans, all by the most primitive methods.

It was customary for the Indian squaws, who carried on the work of cultivating and harvesting, to plant the corn not in orderly rows as is modern method, but in irregular plantings, here and there, the kernels dropped into the hole along with a fish for fertilizer, then covered with a rough pile of earth with the aid of a wooden stick hoe fashioned from the root or branch of a tree.

In the main, the Indians lived upon flesh and fish, which were abundant in all this region. Their tepees and wigwams, covered with bark and skins, were their only dwellings. Ancient fire-places here and there indicated a rude effort to combat the cold.

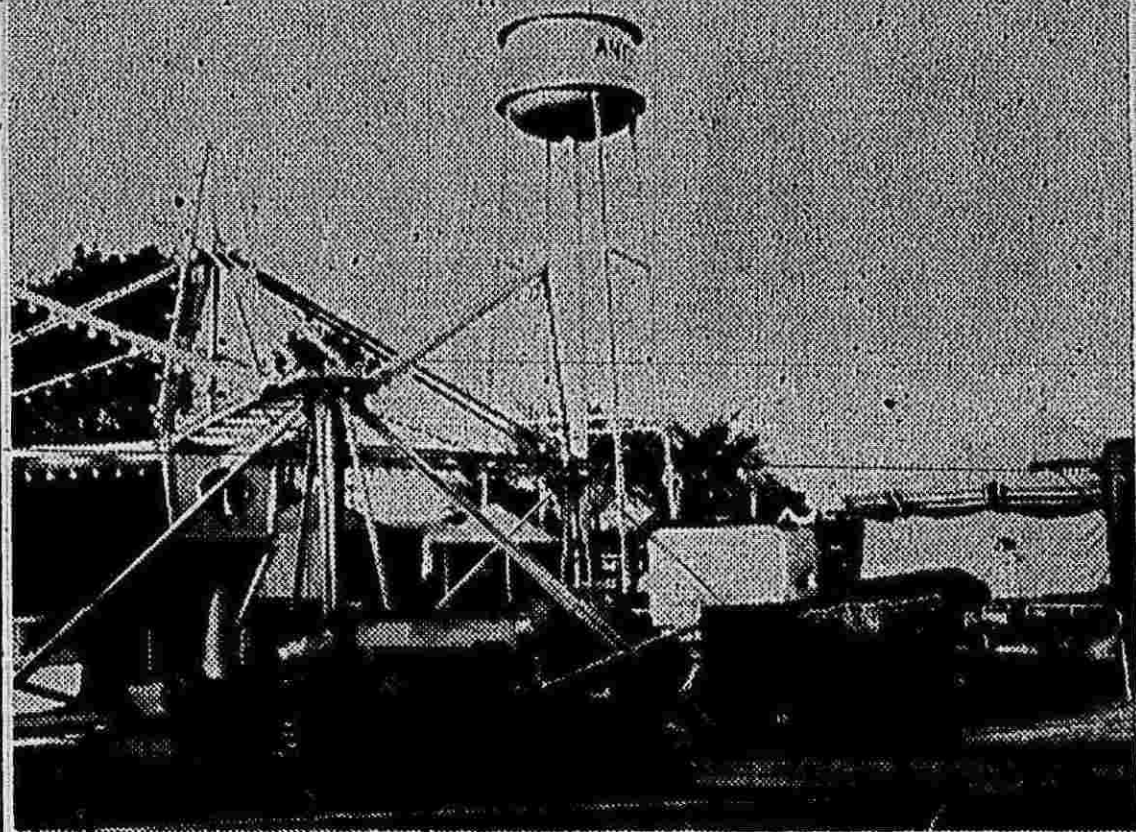

Their clothing consisted largely of the skins of animals, with robes of furs or feathers to provide protection against wintry temperatures. Some weaving was done in the earlier years, as well as pottery and basket making.

The Indian lived strictly with nature, and his every means of subsistence reflected this fact. Materials from the earth were used in his tools; notched stones for arrowheads, slender tree branches for the shafts, feathers of the wild birds to guide the arrow, deer gut or horse hair to fasten the point to the shaft, as well as to form the string for the bow. His drills, chipping hammers, axes, spearheads, skinning knives, corn grinders, made of flint or stone, all aided the red-man in his living with the earth.

"Paint stones" of hematite and a stone paint palette were used by the Indians to decorate themselves with red paint. Their primitive love of finery and decoration was evinced in beads made from pieces of conch shell obtained from the Gulf of Mexico by trade with other Indian tribes, as well as bands of colorful feathers. Gorgets and pendants were fashioned painstakingly from beautifully polished stone and semi-precious gem-stones, and with copper and silver were utilized in the making of ear-rings, ear-spoons, bracelets. Clay, earth itself, was used in the making of beads, gourds, culinary ware, pottery trowels, even small clay game discs. All these artifacts indicate much of the life and ways of the early red-man.

Next week: Indian Ways.

St. Benedict's Abbey...

the fifth anniversary of the beautiful shrines of the Holy Land at Benet Lake. Begun in the fall of 1952, the Shrines drew several thousand visitors when opened to the public in the following year. Depicting various scenes from both the Old and New Testaments, the 28 Shrines are an inspiration to Catholics and non-Catholics alike. There are daily conducted tours through the Shrine building, with several monks always on hand to accommodate the increasing numbers of pilgrims and visitors to the Abbey.

Invite Public to Attend

The monks of Benet Lake would like to extend a special invitation to their friends and neighbors in this area to visit Benet Lake and see for themselves what has been growing in their midst these last thirteen years. While the best visiting hours are between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., local visitors may find it more convenient to come in the evening. Meals are served only to pilgrimage groups who make arrangements in advance.

St. Benedict's Abbey is located just two miles northeast of Antioch, on the former Chris Paschen estate a half mile north of State Line road.

The Antioch News and the Antioch Theatre invite Mr. Gus Fabry, Route 3, Fairfield Road, Lindenhurst Est., Lake Villa, Ill., and one to attend Sunday, Monday or Tuesday's showing of "The Long Hot Summer" at the Antioch Theatre.

Horton Catches 4-lb. Pike

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shultis, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hanke, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Simonsen and Floyd Horton tried their luck at fishing at John's River Inn, on Rte. 173. The group caught a total of 17 catfish, ranging from one to five pounds each, and several striped bass and blue gills. Top honors go to Horton, who caught a 4 pound walleyed pike.

On July 21, 1930, Marine Capt. Arthur Page made the longest recorded blind flight up to that time, from Omaha, Neb., to Anacostia, D. C., a distance of 1,000 miles. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross posthumously for the flight, having been killed in the Thompson Trophy Race only a few weeks later.

Weeds are a worse threat to farmers than bug or blight. They cause a staggering loss estimated at $5 billion a year, and reduce crop yield by 10 per cent. New herbicides, perfected in oil industry laboratories, are proving effective in reducing the damage, and the search for still better ones goes on.

dore F. Olson of the Census Bureau's regional office at Chicago, Ill., which will participate in the survey. Similar questions asked in the Current Population Survey last year revealed that about one in fifteen (7 per cent) of employed men and one in forty (2½ per cent) of employed women held two jobs during the week ending July 13, 1957, the period covered by the survey. Together these multiple jobholders comprised five per cent of all employed persons during the survey week. Their estimated total number was 3½ million. The group designated as multiple jobholders included wage and salary workers with more than one employer during the survey week, as well as persons on the payroll of an employer and also self-employed or those holding a paid job and also working without pay in a family enterprise.

ECONOMY TV TOPICS

(By Harold "Pete" Peterson)

EXPECT REPAIRS?

We shocked a customer when we told her that she should expect her TV set to need servicing after several months of steady use. Expecting a breakdown... though this isn't as alarming as it sounds... is a natural function of everything. Doesn't your automobile wear out? Electric light bulbs need replacing occasionally; even the human body needs the doctor. Statistics show that a five year old TV set will have an average of twenty-five servicing jobs, however, most of them minor ones. Nothing remains perfect forever. When you phone Antioch 1454, the ECONOMY TV on Route 173, 1 mile west of Antioch will quickly and professionally, with the least cost, most times right in your own living room, complete the servicing of your set. You'll like our methods; ask your neighbor about us.
